FIRSTCHURCH

4 Second Ave SE, Watertown, SD 57201

A Word from our Pastor:

January 6th is the feast of Epiphany, the last day of Christmas and the day we in the church typically welcome the Magi – the wise one’s from the east to celebrate and worship the child – Christ. It’s a day of celebration and excitement of finally finding the child they seek, of a years-long journey and the deception of kings.

The journeys we take in life are often similar, an exploration of finding what we are looking for, searching in the wrong places, believing those who’d like to deceive us and finally – sometimes years later, making our way to Christ.

I pray that as we look into this new year, that we may continue to journey together as followers of Christ.

One way that journey continues is in the struggles our church has with accessibility. With thirteen levels throughout the church, and a small lift to get us from the entrance to the sanctuary or fellowship hall, we have looked into the process of getting better access to parts of the building. With that in mind, the Accessibility Team gathered information and worked together with the team at YHR Architects to bring forward ideas for how to help solve some, if not all, of our accessibility problems.

Those who were at Charge Conference this fall got a sneak peak at two plans that the team will be bringing forward. After worship on January 17th and 18th, the Accessibility Team will be presenting the two plans and hoping to receive feedback and a direction to go forward. Please add these meetings to your January schedule so that we can do our work to make our beautiful building that much more accessible to all who come and join us.

Thank you to the Accessibility Team and to you all for your continued faith and dedication to Christ.

Happy New Year

Pastor Sara McManus

SERMON ON THE MOUNT

We invite you to join us January 10 through February 15 as we dive deep into Jesus' "Sermon on the Mount". As crowds gathered, Jesus took the opportunity to teach. His few words have lasting impact on how we are called to be in relation with our neighbors - known and unknown. This 'instruction manual' he provides tells us how to embrace an internal transformation rather than merely external rules, shift into a view of radical hospitality that goes against common culture, and explores our call to always be beacons of light into the world.

Save the Date—Feb. Curious Creations Event!!

Intergenerational Dance Evolution & Snack-A-Thon

Saturday—February 21—following worship 6pm-8pm

We will explore dance as it has changed over the last century! Bring an appetizer to share and your dancing moves - we will have music ready to go, along with popular dances that graced us in various times of history, including: Polka, Macarena, Cupid Shuffle, Church Clap & Forrest Frank favorites. Do you know 2 step and willing to teach us? Or maybe the Waltz? We will also traverse scripture in search of joy! How about the younger generation. Are there any dance moves you'd like to teach the older generation? We'd sure like to try and learn. Young and old are all invited to come and dance or come and cheer on the dancers.

January Mission of the Month Haiti Alive:

A nonprofit organized to serve God and to bring hope, health, and happiness to the people on the island of LaGonave, Haiti. We convey the message of Christ through the areas of education, healthcare, and ministering to those in need, especially women, children, and the elderly.

Healthcare:

- There is a shortage of medical care across the island of LaGonave. The medicine and care provided through our clinics are truly life-giving and life-saving. Mobile clinics travel to small villages, to provide care for those who have no access to medical care or are unable to travel. You can provide medicine, salaries for staff, and transportation for mobile clinics through our healthcare programs

Education

- $150 per year ($12.50/month) provides a uniform, a meal every day, and an education to a Haitian child in need.
- $100 per month will sponsor a teacher and ensure students have quality educators.

Women, Children, Elderly:

- Christmas Program—Provides a simple gift, meal program, and the love of Christ at Christmas for more than 1000 children.
- Feeding Programs—When available, food packets and/or meals are provided to the elderly and neighborhood children.

Thank you

Thank you to all of you here at First Church. You have spoiled us this Christmas Season! We had banana bread, and cookies, and toffee, and coffee and treats and cards and gifts! Thank you. Thank you for all the ways you care for us as your Pastors and Staff. Merry Christmas and Happy New Year.

Music & Worship

We believe music is a powerful way to connect with God and uplift the hearts of our church. That's why we invite you to join our Praise Band!

Whether you enjoy singing, playing an instrument, or would like to learn—we'd love for you to share your talents with us. Together, we'll create a worship experience that inspires and brings people closer to God.

Witnessing Christmas in Action at Spirit Lake

By: Meaghan Wharton, Dakotas Connector for Justice & Advocacy | December 22, 2025

On the morning of December 11th, I headed north to the Spirit Lake Reservation, stopping first in Warwick, North Dakota—a tiny town of just around 50 residents nestled within the reservation. There, I met Kim Paulson, one of the executive directors of the Spirit Lake Ministry Center, along with Eliza, Kim's daughter, and Hunter, a young adult volunteer. Today, I will be joining them in delivering the shoebox Christmas gifts throughout the Spirit Lake Nation.

Our first stop was Warwick Elementary, where 96 children would soon receive those special gifts. With laughter and gratitude, the staff thanked us again and again as we began unloading box after box from a trailer bursting with shoebox gifts.

From there, we drove deeper into the reservation to Four Winds High School in Fort Totten, where another round of hundreds of shoeboxes awaited. There, I got to help unload more boxes ready for kids and teens across the community. Each box was more than a bundle of items—it was a little beacon of care, thoughtfulness, and love.

Lunch at the Oyate Cafe offered a slower moment of connection. Over a warm meal and good conversation, Eliza shared how the shoebox ministry actually works. The Spirit Lake Ministry Center begins receiving gifts as early as October. Every box is carefully checked to make sure it includes the four essentials: a hat, gloves, toothpaste, and a toothbrush. Then, over weeks and months, Eliza and the team sort them by age and gender and carefully plan their delivery. This year, the ministry received somewhere between 4,000 and 6,000 shoeboxes for children across the reservation and beyond!

They don't just stop at Spirit Lake—they also send boxes to the Red Lake Tribe in Minnesota and the Turtle Mountain Reservation, spreading care across tribal communities.

One story Kim shared has stayed with me. He is an instructor at Cankdeska Cikana Community College and had his students help unload the trailer last year. As the boxes came off the truck, a student looked at Kim and said, "Ohhh... this is where they all came from. I got them every year as a kid." That moment struck me—it wasn't just the gifts themselves, but the lasting memory of kindness that had stayed with someone into adulthood.

After lunch, we made one last stop at Oberon Elementary School to drop off another load of boxes. This stop is the point in the journey where I peeled off and headed back toward Valley City, heart warmed by the day's conversations, laughter, and new friendships. The team still had more schools to reach, more boxes to deliver, and I left feeling grateful to have witnessed even a small part of it.

As I reflect on the day, what stands out most is how small, faithful actions add up to something literally unforgettable.

Every person who packed a box contributed to a massive outpouring of love—showing children across the reservation that Christ is with them.

These acts of generous love and faithfulness are the heart of the Christmas story we celebrate— that in the birth of Jesus, God is with us.

Thank you to the Morning Glories Missional Group for their efforts in collecting items and assembling the Shoe Boxes mentioned above. And thank you to all who have contributed to this mission. Many lives are impacted by your kindness and generosity.

Youth Updates:

We are excited to announce that our own April Geffre-Noem is joining our youth staff team. What a joy it is to celebrate the work she is already doing with our High School Youth and invite her to dig deeper into this youth journey. Thank you to April for stepping into this new role alongside Pastor Amy and our other volunteers.

Spreading Christmas Cheer

Christmas carols were sung by preschool thru high school and the adult volunteers. They visited Jenkins, Maple Place, Townview and some of the assisted living centers. Then they went back to the church for hot cocoa and snacks. What a fun and festive time it was! Thanks to all who shared their voices!
