NOVEMBER 2026 FIRST NEWS

Volume 72 / Issue 11

PASTOR'S WORD

It is somehow already almost November, I'm not sure where the time has gone. For the last few weeks, our sermon series has been about love, our call in the world and who God desires us to be. As we gear up for November, we do so holding all of that, while also looking ahead. This month is regularly a time of reflection on our finances, our giving and our gratitude. Not just in church, but in all aspects of our lives. This year, we are choosing to look at stewardship through the lens of Mister Rogers. Something I love about him is the way he looks at the world, the kindness that he gives and the curiosity he chooses to employ. Each of those are done with intentionality – none are by accident, rather an active choice that is made multiple times a day. The impact being something that we are still seeing fruit of today.

What we do – in the world, in our home and in our own hearts – has an impact on people that we can't even begin to understand. Our kids might be the best example of that – they watch everything we do, often repeating words or behaviors that we use – whether we want them to or not. This goes for other people we know. How we act, what we say, the grace or kindness we show, all of it is something that others experience. At the very least, this can change their day – but quite frankly, could change their entire life. I invite you to prayerfully consider taking the month of November and choosing each day to complete a random act of kindness. They don't have to cost anything – it can be as simple as carrying someone's groceries for them, sitting with someone new at worship, holding the door, giving a hug – there are so many options. And it can cost you as little as some of your time.

Along with this kindness, I also invite you to be in prayer of the ways you give within our worshipping community. Soon, we will be sending out pledge letters – but there are ways that each of you give that are not held in currency, yet are vital to the ministry we carry out here at First Church – and beyond. Part of pledge giving is to review what you gave the year before, your current situation, and an intentional time in prayer to consider increasing in some way. So, my hope for this time is the same – how do you currently serve within the church? What does your life look like right now? Is there time to increase or change your time, talents, or other non-currency giving in some way?

This congregation is who they are because of generations of grace, love and kindness. It is a blessing to serve alongside you. One of my Thanksgiving highlights is definitely getting the opportunity to do ministry and worship with you. Thank you!

With love and blessings -
Pastor Kim

WEDNESDAY NIGHT WORSHIP

Every Wednesday night at 6:00 p.m. we gather in worship in the Fellowship Hall. Some families are just finishing their meals, the dishwasher is still running, and at least one teenager is hiding in the hallway. But we gather.

We start with a dance-song called the Church Clap and the youngest amongst the group teach the rest of us how to dance. We head into our own singing, prayer, and scripture – led by the children. They share their joys and their struggles – as deep and real as any adult could share. On the first Wednesday of the month we share in Holy Communion and sometimes, when one of the kids is ready – we share in Holy Baptism.

Wednesday worship is high energy and never calm – but it is a beautiful example of God's presence. God speaks in these moments together and we would love for you to join us.

The Youth had a busy month of October!

- The first Youth night of October, our middle school and high school youth were paired up with someone in grades 1-4 for a mentor night. They learned about what a mentor was and why having a mentor in your faith journey is important. They completed a getting to know you activity with the older Youth helping the younger ones write, spell and answer the questions. Then they were given paper to draw a picture of the them and their mentor.
- 15 Youth and 5 Adults traveled to Aberdeen October 9-11 for DakYouth where we spent the weekend learning about being a friend and making new friends! The Youth were able to participate in 2 different breakout sessions where they could choose between pottery painting (bowls that will be used for a soup meal for the community where people get to keep the bowl), meal packing, games and spiritual yoga. Saturday evening we had the joy of watching an illusionist, and our very own Annie Olerud was selected to be part of one of the illusions. Not only was he really good, but really funny too!
- On October 14, the Youth assisted the PACH program by packing 456 bags of food that will be distributed to children all over Codington County.
- Our service continued on October 21, as the Youth helped prepare for the upcoming Covered Event by setting up tables, organizing clothes and packing the Stable Blessings bags. Thank you to Pearl Geffre, Cortlyn Paulsen, Caleb Clark and Tyson Clark for giving up part of their Sunday afternoon on the 18th to help with the shopping portion of the Stable Blessings bags. We purchase 3 carts full of food that made 160 Stable Blessings bags. Each meal will feed 4-6 people. So those 160 Stable Blessings bags will feed approximately 800 people!

ADVENT AND CHRISTMAS INFO...

Advent is a time for singing. We often debate whether we should sing Christmas hymns or only Advent ones. How about we sidestep that debate and sing Psalms instead? We don't often turn to the psalms for worship texts during advent – or almost any time really. But this season the psalms can capture the experience of the season with surprising power and meaning. At the heart of the Advent season is a longing to find our place in the kingdom and kin-dom of God. So this season let the psalms help us sing the restoration song.
